National Women's History Alliance
Our history is our strength.

LET'S KEEP MOVING FORWARD
TOGETHER.

Dear NWHHA Community,

As we welcome the new year, let's take a moment to celebrate the accomplishments of trailblazing women and gear up for Women's History Month in March. Together, we can continue to preserve and promote their legacies.

This year, under the theme 'Moving Forward Together! Women Who Educate & Inspire Generations,' we reflect on how far we've come, recognize the work still ahead, and honor the women who inspire us to push boundaries and create lasting change.

Read more below about how we can collaborate to make your Women's History Month celebration more impactful and memorable.

-In Solidarity, All of Us at NWHHA

This Month in Women's History: January Highlights

Harriet Tubman
Becomes a Nurse in the Civil War

Pat Summitt
Named Head Coach of the Tennessee Lady Vols
January 10, 1974

Image source: "Diane Nash," Life Stories, <https://www.lifestories.org/interviewees/diane-nash>, accessed December 24, 2024.

A fearless leader of the Civil Rights Movement, Diane Nash played a critical role in organizing pivotal actions like the Freedom Rides and the Selma Voting Rights Campaign. As a co-founder of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), her commitment to nonviolent resistance inspired a generation.

Nash's strategic leadership and courage in the face of adversity helped dismantle segregation and advance voting rights for African Americans, leaving a lasting legacy of activism and justice.

WELCOME TO OUR NEWEST PARTNERS

National Organization for Women Orange County Chapter

NOW is a multi-issue, multi-strategy activist organization that takes a holistic approach to women's rights.

Our priorities are winning economic equality and securing it with an amendment to the U.S. Constitution that will guarantee equal rights for women; championing abortion rights, reproductive freedom and other women's health issues; opposing racism; fighting bigotry against the LGBTQIA community; and ending violence against women.

Tools & Tiaras Inc.

Tools & Tiaras Inc. is on a mission to show girls (ages 6-14) that Jobs Don't Have Genders®.

The NYC-based nonprofit does this through hands-on workshops and summer camps centered on the skilled construction trades. Its pioneering - Expose. Inspire. Mentor. - programming shatters stereotypes and changes the prevailing "women's work" narrative to one that is expansive and opportunity filled.
