The National Women's History Alliance

Established in 1980, as the National Women's History Project (NWHP) and expanded in 2018 to become the National Women's History Alliance a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit educational corporation dedicated to the promotion and recognition of multicultural American women's history. NWHHA led the successful Congressional campaign to recognize March as National Women's History Month. The NWHHA has trained thousands of teachers on how to include women in the curriculums, and NWHHA materials are used across the country in classrooms, government agencies, and civic organization.
