

Test Your Women's History IQ

1. Documented violence against Guatemalans and Mayan indigenous people.
2. Only woman in Dr. King's inner circle and influential in the civil rights movement.
3. Peace activist who has been arrested more than 60 times for protesting war and injustice.
4. At 23, founded WfWI, dedicated to empowering women survivors of war and sexual abuse.
5. Gave away her possessions and set off walking 25,000 miles on foot for peace.
6. Exposed a national audience to the horrors of lynching and violence against African American people.
7. National leader on ending sexual assault and domestic violence.
8. Produced the first documentary on gay life in Cuba made in Cuba.
9. Promotes the idea that peace is an everyday practice that comes from women's leadership and educating children about nonviolent problem solving.
10. Leader in the call for gun control after her husband was shot during an attempt to assassinate President Reagan in 1981.
11. Lawyer, speaker and activist for peace and human rights who has dedicated many years to the NAACP.

Answers:

- | | |
|--------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. Sister Alice Zachmann | 6. Mary Burnett Talbert |
| 2. Dorothy Cotton | 5. Peace Pilgrim |
| 3. Kathy Kelly | 4. Zainab Salbi |
| 4. Elise Boulding | 3. Elise Boulding |
| 5. Graciela Sanchez | 2. Graciela Sanchez |
| 6. Deborah Tucker | 1. Deborah Tucker |

Visit www.nwhp.org for complete biographies of 2019 Honorees.

Learn More About Women's History

The National Women's History Alliance (NWHP) is the national clearinghouse for resources and materials related to multicultural women's history.

For downloadable resources and materials related to a wide-range of issues related to women's history, visit www.nwhp.org.

Our NWHP online store features an array of women's history educational and celebration materials, including posters, books, DVD's, pencils, bookmarks, curriculum units, and educational materials for all ages.

National Women's History Alliance

P.O. Box 469
 Santa Rosa, CA 95402
 (707) 636-2888 (phone)
 (707) 636-2909 (fax)
nwhp@nwhp.org

The NWHP is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, educational organization committed to recognizing and celebrating the diverse and historic accomplishments of women by providing information and educational materials.

National Women's History Theme 2019

Honoring Women Who Are Champions of Peace and Nonviolence

The 2019 National Women's History theme presents the opportunity to honor women who have devoted their lives to the cause of peace and justice; from opposing nuclear weapons and ending domestic violence, to promoting nonviolent action and advocating peaceful co-existence.

www.nwhp.org

Honoring Visionary Women: Champions of Peace and Nonviolence

Kathy Kelly

Peace activist and pacifist who has been arrested more than 60 times for protesting war and injustice.

Dr. E. Faye Williams

Lawyer, speaker, peace activist, and President & CEO of the National Congress of Black Women.

Dorothy Cotton

Civil rights activist and only woman in Dr. King's inner circle who was influential in the civil rights movement.

Graciela Sanchez

Community organizer and co-founder of the Esperanza Peace & Justice Center who produced the first documentary on gay life in Cuba.

Sister Alice Zachmann

Peace and justice activist who Documented violence against Guatemalans and Mayan indigenous people.

Peace Pilgrim

Spiritual leader and peace activist who gave away her personal possessions and walked 25,000 in the name of peace.

Zainab Salbi

Humanitarian, media host, and founder of Women for Women International dedicated to empowering women survivors of war and sexual abuse.

Elise Boulding

Major contributor to the creation of peace and conflict studies who promoted the idea that peace is an everyday practice.

Mary Burnett Talbert

Orator, suffragist, and anti-lynching activist who brought attention to the horrors of lynching and violence against African American people.

Deborah Tucker

President of the Board of Directors of the National Center on Domestic and Sexual Violence National dedicated to ending sexual assault and domestic violence.

Sarah Brady

Gun control advocate who was inspired after her husband was shot protecting President Reagan in 1981.

