Part Two

Now that you have created your list. Look for similarities between the words on your list. Challenge yourself to draw connections between different sides of your chart. When you find a connection, draw a line to show the two words are connected. Finally, label the connections with a title that explains the connections between the two words.

Extensions

Share your connections with a partner or small group. Share how the 2019 Honorees demonstrate "peace" and "nonviolence".
